Part X, Line 2:

Taproot Foundation is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Taproot Foundation in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Taproot Foundation's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they are filed.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

social change. Taproot's Service Grant Program currently operates in five cities, matching business professionals with NPO's that work to improve society who have a specific project need and together engage in a six-nine month project. Our Advisory Services Consulting programs support companies and organizations in designing, developing and implementing their customized, high impact pro bono services. With its Powered by Pro Bono program, Taproot ensures that nonprofits nationwide can independently leverage pro bono resources by providing tools, training and best practices. As the thought leader in the growing pro bono service movement, Taproot also advocates for pro bono engagement with leading foundations, universities, companies, coalitions and associations to host convenings and run campaigns where we collaborate to design innovative solutions bringing pro bono services to bear for progress or issues facing our cities and societies. Taproot's ultimate goal is to create a multi-billion dollar, reliable and transparent marketplace for pro bono service, ensuring that institutions serving the public good have access to the tools and resources they need to thrive.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Taproot's programs connect nonprofit and social change organizations to talented business professionals who volunteer their expertise to deliver high-impact pro bono service.
